Stephen J. Hull

Shareholder | Salt Lake City

Biography

Steve Hull practices exclusively in the area of natural resources law at Parsons Behle & Latimer. His practice focuses on mining transactions, including the purchase and sale of mineral properties through stock or asset sales, and organization of joint ventures or limited liability companies for exploring and developing mineral properties. In connection with such transactions, his practice actively involves associated land, water and permitting diligence. In particular, Steve has extensive experience in examination of title to federal, state and private lands and in preparation of mining and oil and gas title opinions.

Steve represents both small and large natural resource companies and has been involved in numerous domestic and international transactions.
