

Anjana Kanth is an associate attorney in the firm's family law practice. Ms. Kanth focuses her practice on achieving favorable outcomes for clients in complex domestic and family law disputes.

Contact information

801.536.6975

akanth@parsonsbehle.com

Capabilities

Divorce & Family Law

Business & Commercial Litigation

Employment Litigation

Licensed/Admitted

Utah

Anjana Kanth

Associate | Salt Lake City

Biography

An associate attorney in Parsons' divorce and family law practice, Anjana Kanth assists clients on a range of matters related to family law and general civil litigation, including divorces, property division, employment-related disputes, business torts and personal injury.

Anjana earned her Juris Doctor at the University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law, where she served on the Utah Law Review. During law school, Anjana completed an externship for the Salt Lake Office of Guardian ad Litem and a judicial internship for the honorable Chief Justice Matthew B. Durrant of the Utah Supreme Court.

Outside of her legal career, Ms. Kanth enjoys spin classes, Pilates, watching true crime and reality tv and relaxing at home with her cats.

Accomplishments

Academic

University of Utah College of Law, 2024 (J.D.)

University of Utah, 2018 (B.A.)

Associations

Professional

Utah State Bar, Family Law Section

Utah Minority Bar Association

Women Lawyers of Utah