

Chelsea is a member of Parsons Behle & Latimer's litigation practice. She enjoys finding innovative solutions for her clients in various matters, including healthcare, commercial and business litigation, and technology.

Chelsea Hintze

Associate | Boise

Biography

Chelsea's background includes extensive government affairs experience. She has worked collaboratively with both local leaders and federal legislators to solve complex issues in the areas of property tax, land use and business. Chelsea earned her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Idaho. While in law school, she externed for two federal judges and served as the chief managing editor of the Idaho Law Review.

Accomplishments

Academic

University of Idaho College of Law

- University of Idaho Law Review, chief managing editor
- CALI Award for Excellence, Land Use and Planning
- Legal Research and Writing, teaching assistant

University of California, Davis

Associations

Professional

Idaho State Bar

Articles

"Charting with AI? Providers Beware" (March 25, 2026)

"Practical Guidance for Healthcare Providers: Heed the OIG's Guidelines to Prevent Punitive Actions for Federal Health Law Violations," (March 26, 2025)

Contact information

208.562.4876

chintze@parsonsbehle.com

Capabilities

Business & Commercial Litigation
Government Relations and Lobbying
Healthcare
Technology

Licensed/Admitted

Idaho

U.S. Dist. Court, Dist. of Idaho

EXCEPTIONAL RESULTS
EVERY DAY

PARSONS
BEHLE &
LATIMER