

Tyler works closely with startups, founders and their investors to source capital, innovate and grow rapidly. In addition to representing clients in initial seed-stage and later-stage financings, company exits and securities issues, Tyler brings a solutions-focused perspective to clients' day-to-day transactions and legal issues.

Tyler G. MacKay

Associate | Salt Lake City

Biography

A member of Parsons Behle & Latimer's Corporate practice group, Tyler MacKay represents businesses of all sizes in startup, capital raising, corporate and transactional matters. His practice also includes representing angel investors, angel groups and venture and growth capital firms on structuring, forming and operating funds and deploying capital.

Tyler's practice is steeped in the venture capital and entrepreneurship ecosystem. As a venture capital fund administrator and an early employee at a venture-backed SaaS startup providing software to venture capital firms, Tyler experienced the challenges that founders and investors face first-hand, from finding product-market fit and managing hyper growth, to capital calls and LP reporting.
