

Gabe Davis is a member of Parsons Behle & Latimer's corporate and litigation practice groups. He employs his diverse legal background to secure innovative and effective solutions for clients on a broad range of matters.

Gabe A. Davis

Associate | Idaho Falls

Biography

Gabe Davis is an associate in the Idaho Falls office of Parsons Behle & Latimer, where he currently practices in the firm's corporate and litigation departments. His practice focuses on a wide array of civil litigation matters as well as corporate and securities transactions.

Gabe received his J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School in 2021. During law school, he externed for the Honorable Evelyn J. Furse at the United States District Court for the District of Utah and worked as an Honors Intern for the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. He also spent time interning with the United Nations, where he produced a substantive report outlining the legal causes and solutions of global wage differentials between national and migrant workers. Following graduation, Gabe spent nearly a year protecting Texas investors as an Enforcement Attorney for the Texas State Securities Board.

Outside the office, Gabe enjoys spending time with his family, playing the violin, and skiing.

Accomplishments

Professional

Judicial Extern for the Honorable Evelyn J. Furse, Magistrate Judge, United States District Court for the District of Utah

Academic

The University of Chicago Law School (J.D., 2021)

Brigham Young University (B.A., American Studies; Minor, Spanish 2018)

Contact information

208.528.5229

gdavis@parsonsbehle.com

Capabilities

Business & Commercial Litigation

Employment Litigation

Securities Litigation

Corporate

Securities & Capital Markets

Government Enforcement, Securities and White-Collar Defense

Licensed/Admitted

Idaho

Utah

Texas

U.S. District Court, Dist. of Idaho