

Elliott McGill is a member of Parsons Behle & Latimer's litigation practice group, where he draws on his broad range of bankruptcy and commercial litigation experience to help businesses and individuals achieve their legal goals.

Elliott D. McGill

Associate | Missoula

Biography

Elliott McGill is a member of Parsons Behle & Latimer's litigation practice in the firm's Missoula, Montana office. Elliott's practice focuses on commercial litigation, bankruptcy, banking and construction matters.

Elliott attended the University of Montana School of Law, graduating with honors in 2020. During law school, Elliott was a member of the National Moot Court Team and the Montana Law Review. Following law school, Elliott served as a law clerk to the Hon. Benjamin P. Hursh, Chief Bankruptcy Judge for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Montana.

A Utah native, Elliott attended Carroll College in Montana, where he played four years of football and earned a B.A. in Sociology and Political Science.

Accomplishments

Professional

Clinical Internship, U.S. Bankruptcy Court

Law Clerk to the Hon. Benjamin P. Hursh, U.S. Bankruptcy Court

Academic

University of Montana School of Law 2020 (J.D. with honors)

- Montana Law Review
- Moot Court Team

Carroll College (B.A.)

Contact information

406.317.7243

emcgill@parsonsbehle.com

Capabilities

Appeals

Business Bankruptcy & Corporate Restructuring

Business & Commercial Litigation

Financial Institution Litigation

Licensed/Admitted

Montana

Associations

Community

Missoula Catholic Schools Foundation, Board Member