

Jamie represents lenders and borrowers in a broad range of lending transactions including both syndicated and bilateral credit facilities, asset-based financing, real estate financing, and acquisition financing.

Jamie L. Riley

Associate | Boise

Biography

Jamie Riley is a member of Parsons Behle & Latimer's Banking & Finance practice team. Jamie represents regional and national banks as well as other types of lenders and commercial borrowers in a wide array of lending transactions. Jamie also assists clients with various corporate transactions including mergers and acquisitions, entity formation, and corporate governance.

Jamie obtained her J.D. from the University of Idaho College of Law, where she graduated first in her class. During law school Jamie was a member of the Idaho Law Review where she served as the Chief Managing Editor. Jamie also worked as a taxation research assistant, and was involved in editing and preparing multiple taxation textbooks and study manuals for publication. Following graduation, Jamie served as a law clerk to the Honorable Roger S. Burdick, former Chief Justice of the Idaho Supreme Court.

Jamie is currently an adjunct professor at Boise State University, teaching The Legal Environment of Business.

Contact information

208.562.4914

jriley@parsonsbehle.com

Capabilities

Banking & Financial Services
Corporate
Commercial Lending
Real Estate
Mergers & Acquisitions

Licensed/Admitted

Idaho
U.S. Dist. Court, Dist. of Idaho

Accomplishments

Academic

University of Idaho College of Law, J.D., summa cum laude, 2017

- Dean's List All Applicable Semesters
- Dean's Scholar
- Chief Managing Editor, Idaho Law review
- Faculty Award of Legal Achievement
- Alumni Award for Excellence

Boise State University, B.S., Health Sciences, cum laude, 2014

- Dean's List
- Alpha Xi Delta

Associations

Professional

Idaho State Bar, 2017

Idaho Women Lawyers

Articles

“St. Alphonsus Medical Center v. St. Luke’s Health System: The Uncertain Application of the Efficiencies Defense is Leading to Unpredictable Outcomes in Healthcare Mergers 53 Idaho L. Rev. 577” (2017)