Biography

Michael is a commercial litigator focused on competitive issues. His work includes employment litigation where he represents employers in cases related to employee movement, compensation and compliance with state and federal law, including the ADA, FLSA, and FMLA.

Michael's practice also includes complex business and intellectual-property matters, including trade-secret disputes, enforcement of restrictive covenants and anti-competitive business practices.

In his First Amendment practice, Michael also represents clients, including news media organizations, in matters that enable reporting and public oversight through access to government records, defense of defamation claims and similar legal issues.

Experience

Represented client against antitrust complaints (Sherman Act)

Parsons represented Ute Conference against anti-trust (Sherman Act Section 1 & 2) complaints regarding boundary rules for a youth football team. The plaintiffs also asked the federal court to enjoin the Ute Conference from enforcing boundary rules through a temporary restraining order (TRO). Parsons obtained a complete victory for the client. The judge declined to enter any aspect of the requested TRO and found for the client on likelihood of success on the merits, on irreparable harm and on the balance of harms.

Defended Client in Competitive Misconduct with Antitrust Issues

Defended a pharmacy services client in allegations of competitive misconduct with antitrust issues.

Nondisclosure, Nonsolicitation, Noncompetition Defense of Solar Sales Company

Defending a solar sales company in several lawsuits in Utah state and federal courts and Texas state court for competitive claims including nonsolicitation, nondisclosure and noncompetition claims.

Public Records Access Motion for Summary Judgment

Parsons' client The Salt Lake Tribune asked for copies of officer interviews from the City of West Jordan, as part of a project assembling a database of Utah police involved shootings. The city refused to release the records, and The Tribune challenged that access denial in an appeal to the district court. The court issued a ruling granting the Tribune's Motion for Summary Judgment and ordered West Jordan to turn over those records, with minimal redactions.
