Corey Hunter

Associate | Salt Lake City

Biography

Corey is an associate attorney in the Salt Lake City office of Parsons Behle & Latimer. His practice is focused on employment litigation and advising employers on related matters. Corey also represents clients in business and trust-related litigation.

Prior to law school, Corey advised various Utah employers on human resources issues while completing his undergraduate degree in Human Resource Management. During law school, Corey clerked at a small employment law firm, where he gained insight into plaintiff-side employment litigation, and with a federal judge, where he learned to consider matters from the judge's perspective. Corey now leverages this unique background to bring value to employers and other clients. Individuals and clients who work with Corey appreciate his responsiveness and ability to anticipate needs and issues before they develop.

Outside of work, Corey enjoys sampling trails, roads and slopes throughout the Mountain West aboard his skis and bicycles.
