

Travis is a member of Parsons Behle & Latimer's banking & finance and corporate practice teams. Travis's practice focuses on commercial finance, mergers and acquisitions, out-of-court restructuring and work-outs, and other corporate and transactional matters.

Travis Corbin

Associate | Salt Lake City

Biography

Travis Corbin is an associate at Parsons Behle & Latimer. His practice includes serving as lending and finance counsel and assisting clients in corporate and real estate transactions, restructuring, reorganizations, stock and asset acquisitions and out-of-court workouts.

Accomplishments

Professional

2021 Recipient of the J. Reuben Clark Award

2023 Recipient of the Wendy C. Archibald Meritorious Achievements and Distinguished Service Award

Academic

Brigham Young University, J. Reuben Clark Law School (J.D., cum laude, 2023)

BYU Law Review, Associate Editor

Brigham Young University (B.S. in Psychology, 2019)

Associations

Professional

Member, State Bar of Texas

Articles

"A party's name is misspelled in your security instrument. Now what?," Sept. 5, 2024

"Not So Fast, SPACs: Disloyalty, Emerging Delaware Corporate Law, and How to Protect SPAC Management and Shareholders Alike," 4 A.S.U. CORP. & BUS. L.J. 1 (2023)

"Investing, But Better: Reforming the Investing in Opportunity Act" 25 N.Y.U. J. LEGIS. & PUB. POL'Y 563 (2023)

Contact information

801.536.6622

tcorbin@parsonsbehle.com

Capabilities

Banking & Financial Services

Corporate

Commercial Lending

Mergers & Acquisitions

Real Estate

Licensed/Admitted

Not yet licensed in Utah

Texas