

Greg Cropper practices from Parsons Behle and Latimer's Park City, Utah office, focusing his practice on real estate acquisition, disposition, land use entitlements and development, and commercial leasing as well as owners' association matters.

Greg Cropper

Of Counsel | Park City

Biography

Greg is a member of Parsons Behle & Latimer's Real Estate practice team and represents buyers, sellers, landlords, tenants, developers and contractors in connection with various real estate matters, including acquisition, disposition, development, leasing and land use issues. Greg also has a significant owners association practice.

Experience

Ranch Property Buyer

Acquisition of "star" Sundance agricultural properties and water rights from. This property and related covenants preserves a very important agricultural area in fast-developing Wasatch County.

Subdivision Approval and Operating Agreement

Final approval of a major Deer Valley development, together with marketing and operating agreements with the Stein Eriksen Group.

Accomplishments

Academic

S.J. Quinney College of Law, University of Utah, J.D., 1987

- Leary Scholar
- Utah Law Review Staff
- Utah Law Review Board of Editors

Utah State University, B.S., 1984

Contact information

435.962.9936

gcropper@parsonsbehle.com

Capabilities

Real Estate

Resorts & Recreation

Licensed/Admitted

Utah

Associations

Professional

Utah Bar Association

Park City Bar Association

International Council of Shopping Centers

Community

Park City Historical Society and Museum Board of Trustees