Landon P. Tracy

Associate | Salt Lake City

Biography

Landon Tracy is an associate in the firm's Salt Lake City office, where his practice focuses on corporate and transactional law. He advises clients in many industries, assisting them with complex transactions including mergers and acquisitions, reorganizations, equity financings as well as general corporate governance and day-to-day matters.

Before joining the firm, Landon practiced at a large international law firm representing private equity sponsors, their portfolio companies and privately-held businesses on transactions valued up to several billion dollars, including joint ventures, internal reorganizations, leveraged buyouts, add-ons, carve-outs, etc.

In his free time, Landon likes to spend time with his family, golf, fish and be outdoors.
