Biography

Mathew T. Bain is an associate attorney in the firm's Missoula, Montana office and is passionate about the intersection of environment, labor, and industry.

In 2022, Mathew received his J.D. from the University of Oregon School of Law where he graduated in the top 1% of his class. While attending law school, Mathew worked as a fellow in the Energy and Natural Resources Law Center, externed with the United States Attorney's Office and served as a managing editor for the Oregon Law Review. In his final semester, Mathew interned for the Honorable Michael J. McShane of the United States District Court for the District of Oregon.

Prior to law school, Mathew attended Montana State University's Honors College where he graduated with highest honors and earned a B.S. in environmental science. Following law school, Mathew returned to Montana and clerked for the Honorable Dana L. Christensen of the United States District Court for the District of Montana. Mathew is grateful to be back in Montana, where he enjoys trail running, skiing and reading about the history of the western United States.
