

Rob is an experienced corporate attorney advising clients on various business transactions and general outside counsel matters. With a background representing investment fund sponsors and private businesses, Rob serves as a trusted strategic partner to help business leaders find solutions to major transactions and day-to-day issues.

Robert M. Ahlander

Of Counsel | Salt Lake City

Biography

Rob Ahlander is of counsel in the firm's corporate department in the Salt Lake City office. He advises clients on a wide range of business and corporate matters, including general outside counsel needs, investment fund formation, corporate law (corporations, partnerships and LLCs), mergers and acquisitions and corporate reorganizations. Rob represents a broad spectrum of clients—from investment fund sponsors, small-to-medium businesses and middle-market companies.

Prior to joining the firm, Rob was a partner at a large international law firm where he advised investment fund sponsors on the structuring, formation, regulatory compliance and operations of private equity funds and their management companies.

Accomplishments

Academic

New York University School of Law, LL.M., Taxation, 2018

Brigham Young University, J. Reuben Clark Law School, J.D., cum laude, 2017

- Lead Note and Comment Editor, BYU Law Review
- BYU National Moot Court Team
- ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition
- First Place Best Brief Award Winner

Brigham Young University, B.S., Business: Entrepreneurship, 2011

- Dean's List

Contact information

801.536.6617

rahlander@parsonsbehle.com

Capabilities

Corporate

Middle Market & Family Businesses

Mergers & Acquisitions

Emerging Companies & Venture Capital

Securities & Capital Markets

Licensed/Admitted

Utah

Texas

Associations

Professional

Utah State Bar
Texas State Bar

Articles

Comment, “Undressing Naked Economic Protectionism, Rational Basis Review, and Fourteenth Amendment Equal Protection”