

Travis is a member of the firm's banking & finance and corporate practices and regularly assists clients in real estate matters. Travis works closely with clients to provide legal guidance on commercial finance transactions, real estate finance and purchase and sale transactions, private securities offerings, and fund formation.

Contact information

801.536.6622
tcorbin@parsonsbehle.com

Capabilities

Banking & Financial Services
Corporate
Commercial Lending
Mergers & Acquisitions
Real Estate

Licensed/Admitted

Utah
Texas

Travis Corbin

Associate | Salt Lake City

Biography

Travis is an associate at Parsons Behle & Latimer. His practice includes serving as finance and real estate counsel and assisting clients in a wide array of finance and real estate transactions, private securities offerings and fund formation.

Accomplishments

Professional

2021 Recipient of the J. Reuben Clark Award

2023 Recipient of the Wendy C. Archibald Meritorious Achievements and Distinguished Service Award

Academic

Brigham Young University, J. Reuben Clark Law School (J.D., cum laude, 2023)

BYU Law Review, Associate Editor

Brigham Young University (B.S. in Psychology, 2019)

Associations

Professional

Member, State Bar of Texas

Articles

"A party's name is misspelled in your security instrument. Now what?," Sept. 5, 2024

"Not So Fast, SPACs: Disloyalty, Emerging Delaware Corporate Law, and How to Protect SPAC Management and Shareholders Alike," 4 A.S.U. CORP. & BUS. L.J. 1 (2023)

"Investing, But Better: Reforming the Investing in Opportunity Act" 25 N.Y.U. J. LEGIS. & PUB. POL'Y 563 (2023)