Abigail M. Dizon-Maughan

Shareholder | Salt Lake City

Biography

Abby is a respected shareholder, serving clients across Utah and the Intermountain West with significant experience in complex commercial litigation. With a proven record of success in both state and federal courts, she has handled a wide range of high-stakes cases, from breach of contract to RICO, and is known for her zealous advocacy and strategic, results-oriented approach.

Beyond her impressive litigation skills, Abby is also a respected leader in the legal community. She is deeply committed to advancing the profession and supporting her peers, actively contributing to community-based organizations such as the Utah State Bar, the Litigation Section, and the American Bar Association (ABA). Her dedication to these organizations, combined with her professional success, has earned her the reputation as not only a top-tier litigator but also a trusted leader in the legal field.

Sophisticated businesses in Utah and the Intermountain West rely on Abby for her legal expertise, her leadership, and her unwavering commitment to achieving the best possible outcomes in even the most complex cases.
